Letter to my form tutor

Instructions to students:

- As your new teacher, I am looking forward to getting to know you. This letter is a chance for you to let me know what matters to you, how you are feeling and what you hope this year will be like.
- Please be as specific as you can. Choose your words carefully so that I'm able to understand what you mean. For instance, if I told you my day has been 'good', it doesn't offer as much detail as saying my day has been a 'whirlwind', 'exciting', 'tedious' or 'challenging'.
- The Emotional Word Wheel is there to help you find words that best fit how you are feeling about certain aspects of high school, so use this if/when you need to.

Name: _____

Current school: _____

So far today, I am feeling _____, because _____

At the end of primary school, I feel _____

As I start my time at high school, I hope that _____

My strengths (either inside or outside of school) are _____

What I find most difficult at school OR a challenge I'm facing right now that I want you to know about is _____

A random fact I love OR another thing I'd like you to know about me is _____

Kind regards, _____

CAREERS INTERVENTION

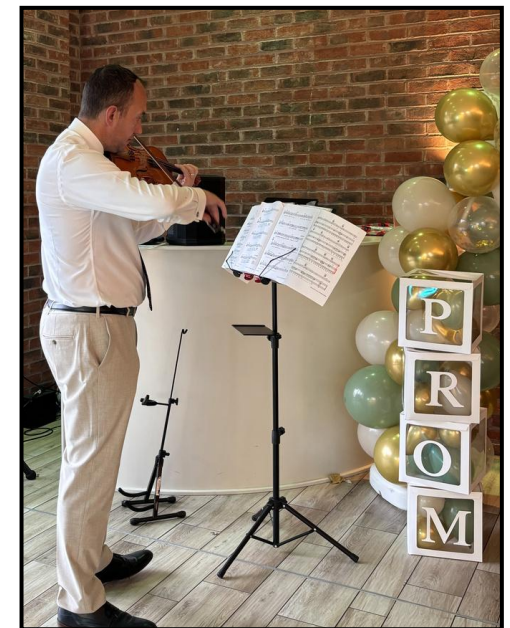

Our Year 8 students attended Newcastle College and took part in exciting team-building activities with LEGO®, developing their communication, problem-solving and teamwork skills. They also had the opportunity to interview college staff about their different career journeys and roles, gaining valuable insight into the world of work and further education.

Always Students

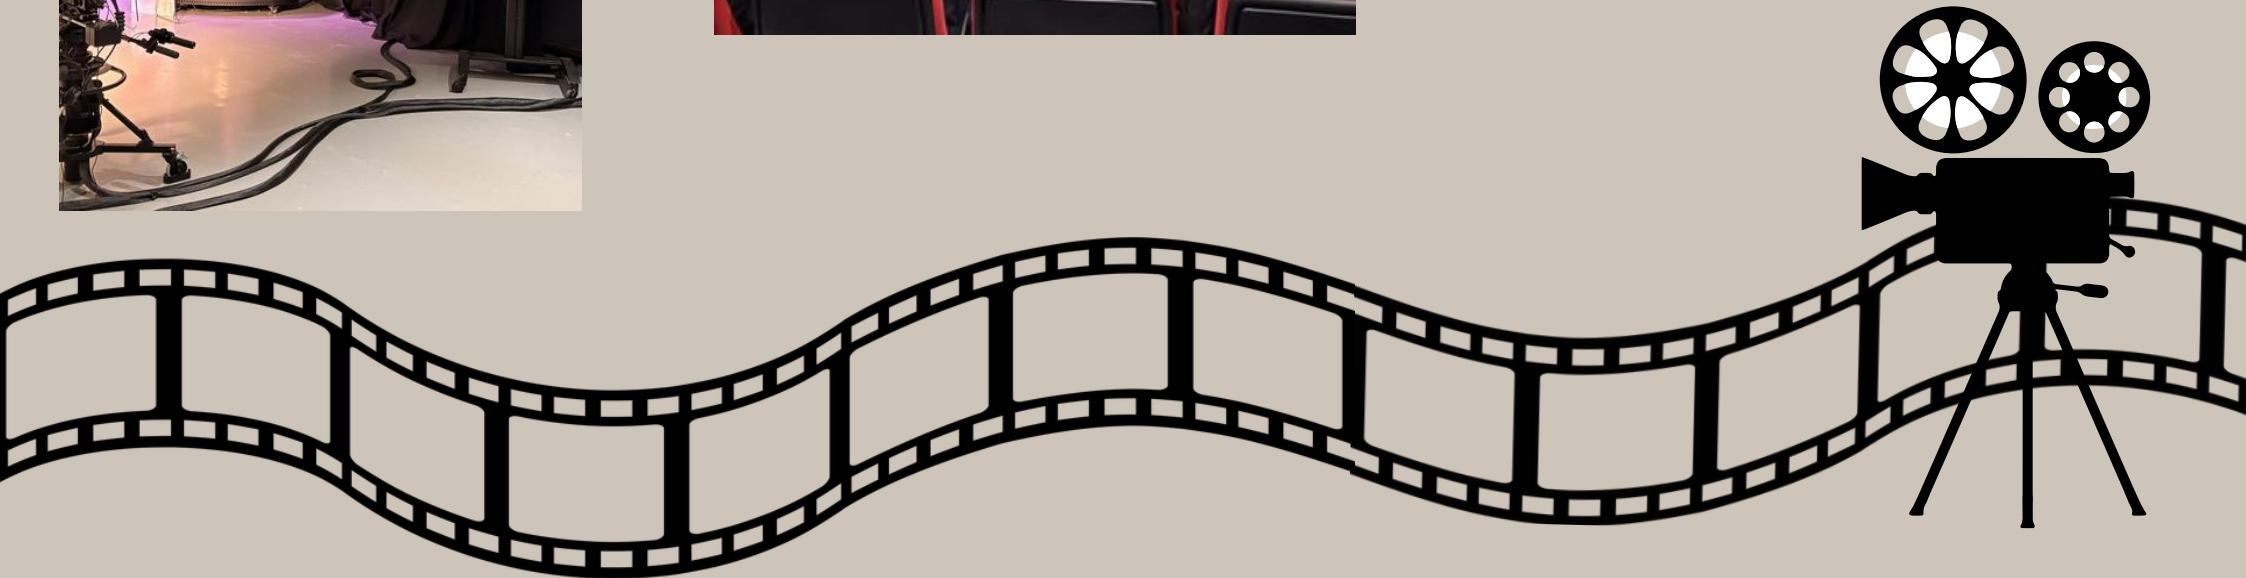

Our students enjoyed a delicious world street food experience in recognition of their hard work, positive attitudes, and commitment to our school values.

Our 'Always' Students consistently demonstrate sustained effort, complete classwork and homework to a high standard, take pride in their work, show excellent behaviour and respect, maintain good attendance and punctuality, and display resilience, independence, and a commitment to continuous improvement.
